

LITTLETON HITS ARIZONA'S RECALL OF JUDGES CLAUSE

Congressman's Maiden Effort
In House a Bitter, Though
Eloquent, Attack.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—A bitter arraignment of the plan for the recall-of-judges feature of the Arizona Constitution as a blow which would "tear from the splendid structure of free government the arms upon which it has come to rest with unshaken confidence" was made in the House to-day by Representative Martin W. Littleton of New York. It was Littleton's maiden speech as a Congressman and received close attention.

"The seasoned and tried traditions of impeachment are to be translated into a field of tumult," said Mr. Littleton, "and the supporters of regulated business are to be converted into radio assaultors born of hate and discontent. The misguided or malignant passions of an unimportant fragment of the community may recklessly set the most stalwart Judge and, by groundless charge put suspicion in the place of confidence and distrust in the place of faith."

"We look in vain for precedents, for no people ever dared to write such an example into their history. We make fruitless search for comparisons, but the intelligent nations of the earth have only contrasts to offer. The examples of patriotism and courage in the blunders of Englishmen and Americans of the uninterested judges holding together the almost dismembered Governments."

"God forbid that the sanctuaries of the country of America shall ever be violated by the malignant hiss of a mob crying, 'Crucify him, crucify him!'"

CROW VANQUISHES RATTLER.

RANGOR, Pa., May 20.—In a battle between a crow and a blacksnake at the Hazen sandpit at Mount Bethel today the bird vanquished the reptile. The bird devoured the coils of the snake and pecked the serpent's eyes out.

When the boy's supremacy was established the birds of war among them the pit killed the snake.
